ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Commissioner of Police, Surat City, Surat, passed an order on September 14, 1999, in exercise of powers under Section 3(1) of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 ("PASA Act" for short), detaining the petitioner-Kanaiya Ranchhodbhai Randeri, under the provisions of the said Act.

2. The detaining authority took into consideration three offences registered against the petitioner, so also the statements of two anonymous witnesses. The detaining authority considered the activities of the detenu as detrimental to public order and observed that, therefore, with a view to preventing the petitioner from pursuing his anti-social activities, it is necessary to detain the petitioner under the provisions of the PASA Act. The authority also considered the possibility of resorting to less drastic remedies and came to conclusion that detention under PASA Act is the only remedy that can be resorted to.

3. The petitioner challenges the order of detention on various grounds. Mr. Gagdekar, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, has restricted his arguments to the ground that there is improper exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act. The authority had not undertaken the exercise of verifying the correctness and genuineness of the fear expressed by the witnesses qua the detenu. Mr. Gagdekar submitted further that the offences registered against the detenu do not indicate any disturbance to public order and, therefore, the subjective satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority regarding the activities of the detenu being detrimental to public order is without any basis and the petition mays, therefore, be allowed.

4. Mr. K.T. Dave, learned Assistant Government Pleader, has opposed this petition.

5. So far as the statements of anonymous witnesses are concerned, it may be noted that the detaining authority has observed that the fear expressed by the witnesses and the statements and the statements are correct and genuine. Barring this statement in the grounds of detention, there appears nothing to indicate an exercise having been undertaken by the detaining authority for verifying correctness and genuineness of the statements and the fear expressed by the witnesses. The detaining authority has to take into consideration the background, the antecedents, the character, etc. of the detenu while considering the need for exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act. The authority has to scale the right of the detenu of making an effective representation on the one hand and the public interest on the other and has to strike a balance between the two. The detaining authority has not filed any affidavit nor is there any contemporaneous material to indicate undertaking of such exercise by the detaining authority and, therefore, the exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act can be taken to have vitiated. No reliance, therefore, can be placed on these statements for sustaining the order of detention. There is improper exercise of powers under Section 9(2), as there is no material to indicate the exercise as stated above (Bai Amina v. State of Gujarat & Ors., 1981 GLR 1186.

6. Adverting to the offences registered against the detenu, a perusal of the First Information Report and the other relevant documents supplied to the detenu makes it abundantly clear that each of the case is of an individual character and there was no disturbance to public order. All that was involved was a law and order situation. Resultantly, the satisfaction arrived at by the detaining authority about the activities of the detenu being detrimental to public order is without any basis. Neither the statements nor the registered offences an be accepted to form the basis of this satisfaction.

7. In view of the above discussion, the reliance placed on by the detaining authority on the statements of anonymous witnesses and the registered offences cannot be upheld. The order of detention as well as the continued detention both are rendered bad in law. The petition, therefore, deserves to be allowed.

8. In the result, the petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated October 14, 1999, passed against the detenu is hereby quashed. The detenu-Kanaiya Ranchhodbhai Randeri is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other matter. Rule is made absolute with no orders as to costs.
